Dear Mike: It is true that Joan Bennett, who just divorced Walter Wanger, will marry her sister Connie's widower, Gen John Coulter? — Abby Kingston, Gary, Ind.

Dear Mrs. Ryan: The same. He started out as a nightclub performer and this year celebrates his 30th year in the business.

Sir: I read some silly fan magazine that says Cary Grant and Dyan Cannon are expecting a baby. I'm such a fan of his, I hope it's true — but if not I'm sending a poison pen letter to that editor! — Marion L. Wilk, Woodmore, N. Y.

Dear Marian: Hold your poison. The baby's due in May, a first for both, and both are beaming over it.

Dear Mike: I'm curious about Julie Payne's divorce suit against actor Skip Ward. Isn't she the daughter of the much-married John Payne? And why her own quickie divorce? — Jimmy Trager, New London, Conn.

Dear Jemmy: Yes, to the first question (John's track record consists of Anne Shirley, Julie's mother; Gloria DeHaven and Sandy Curtis). "Incompatibility" answers your second question.

Dear Mr. C.: Isn't Peggy Lee a grandmother pushing 50, doesn't she wear a wig and contact lenses, isn't she over-weight, didn't she have a facelift about a year ago and how much longer does her contract with Capitol Records have to go? — Bernice Evans, Orange, Texas.

Dear Bernice: My, we're in a biting mood today, aren't we? Peggy will be 44 next May 26. Her daughter, Nicki Barbour Foster, made her a grandmother last year. She doesn't wear just one wig, she wears dozens of them, as do most of our other stars, and expensive wigs too. She also wears contact lenses—and the Capitol boys wish they could keep her under contract forever because she's one of the greatest singers of all time.

Dear Seer: I saw John Hoyt on a "Virginian" last week and I read in your column he's doing a movie, "Duel at Diablo." Is he the John Hoystradt who used to sing and play the piano at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York? — Mrs. Margaret Ryan, Winchester, Mass.

Dear Mrs. Ryan: The same. He started out as a nightclub performer and this year celebrates his 30th year in the business.

Mike: Somebody told me Jennifer Jones is a health addict. True or false? — Mary Jane Harper, Norway, Iowa.

Dear Mary Jane: You make it sound like she's hooked on something. Jennifer practices the science of health known as Yoga. Her teacher is Indra Devi.

Dear Mike: How many children does Hedy Lamarr have and how many husbands has she had? — Francis X. Gries, Notre Dame, Ind.

Dear Francis: Two — a daughter Denise and a son Anthony — both by her third husband, John Loder. Her other mates, all divorced by her, were Fritz Mandl, Gene Markey, Ted Stauffer, W. Howard Lee, and Lewis W. Boies.

Dear Mr. C.: Is there any truth in the rumor about the two dancers on the Lawrence Welk show — I mean about him breaking off his marriage to make her his wife? — Mrs. Veigberg, Cleveland.

Dear Mrs. Veigberg: You must be thinking about some of the dancers in "Peyton Place." Welk says there's nothing like that going on in his clean-cut All-American company and if there were he'd bounce 'em off the beam.

Dear Mike: Will "Gone with the Wind" ever come back to Houston and if so, when? Please try to print this as I am sure many other readers are awaiting the return of this great movie. — S.S., Houston.

Dear S.: The picture is currently being reissued all over the world. Phone your M-G-M film exchange in Houston and they'll be able to tell you the good news.

(Mike Connolly will try to answer your questions in his column. He gives no personal replies by mail.)

Local Heart Princess Candidates Are Sought

More candidates for Heart Princess are being sought from the Torrance area according to a spokesman of the Los Angeles County Heart Association's Southwestern Branch.

"A princess candidate is being sought who personally or through a relative is or has been associated with heart and circulatory disorders," explained Gilbert A. Pando, Southwestern Branch non-medical vice chairman.

Pando, a Torrance banker, urged Torrance and Waller area high school girls who fit these qualifications to contact the branch office, 16811 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale, or at 371-3591. "Then we can

Dinner Set To Organize Sertoma Club

Two Torrance residents, Henry Popko and William Banner, are taking the lead in laying plans for the organization of a Sertoma Club in Torrance, according to the Inglewood Sertoma Club.

The kick-off dinner will be held at Fillipone's Restaurant, Anza and Calle Mayor, tonight, 7:30, for prospective members. With "Service to Mankind" as a motto, this 50 year old internationally known service organization is seeking an initial charter group in Torrance.

Persons interested in further information may contact Henry Popko, FR 8-3076 or William Banner, FR 8-3747.

send her further information about the contest," he added.

"TIME IS OF the essence since the selection will be made Nov. 15th," he stressed. Heart Princess candidates will be selected by a special committee on the basis of their qualifications and on a three-minute verbal presentation on "Why I Want To Help The Heart Association."

A girl will be picked from the various candidates to become branch Heart Princess, the banker explained. During the Heart Fund Drive next February, she will compete for Los Angeles County Heart Queen title.

The princess judging will be done by a special Southwestern Branch Heart Committee who will judge candidates on their verbal presentation and "extra-curricular" activities in the area.

A BRANCH HEART athlete, who will be the branch Princess' escort, will be selected from the top athletes in the area next month, it was added.

The Heart Queen and the Heart athlete will be crowned at a Heart Hop dance to be held at the Hollywood Palladium on Heart Sunday afternoon, Feb. 27, 1966.

BANK DIVIDEND
A quarterly dividend of 32 cents per share on the 11,400,000 shares outstanding has been declared by Security First National Bank's board of directors. The dividend is payable Nov. 5 to shareholders of record Oct. 19.
